

Participants' Entrance & Exit Survey Analysis

Entrance survey respondents = 15

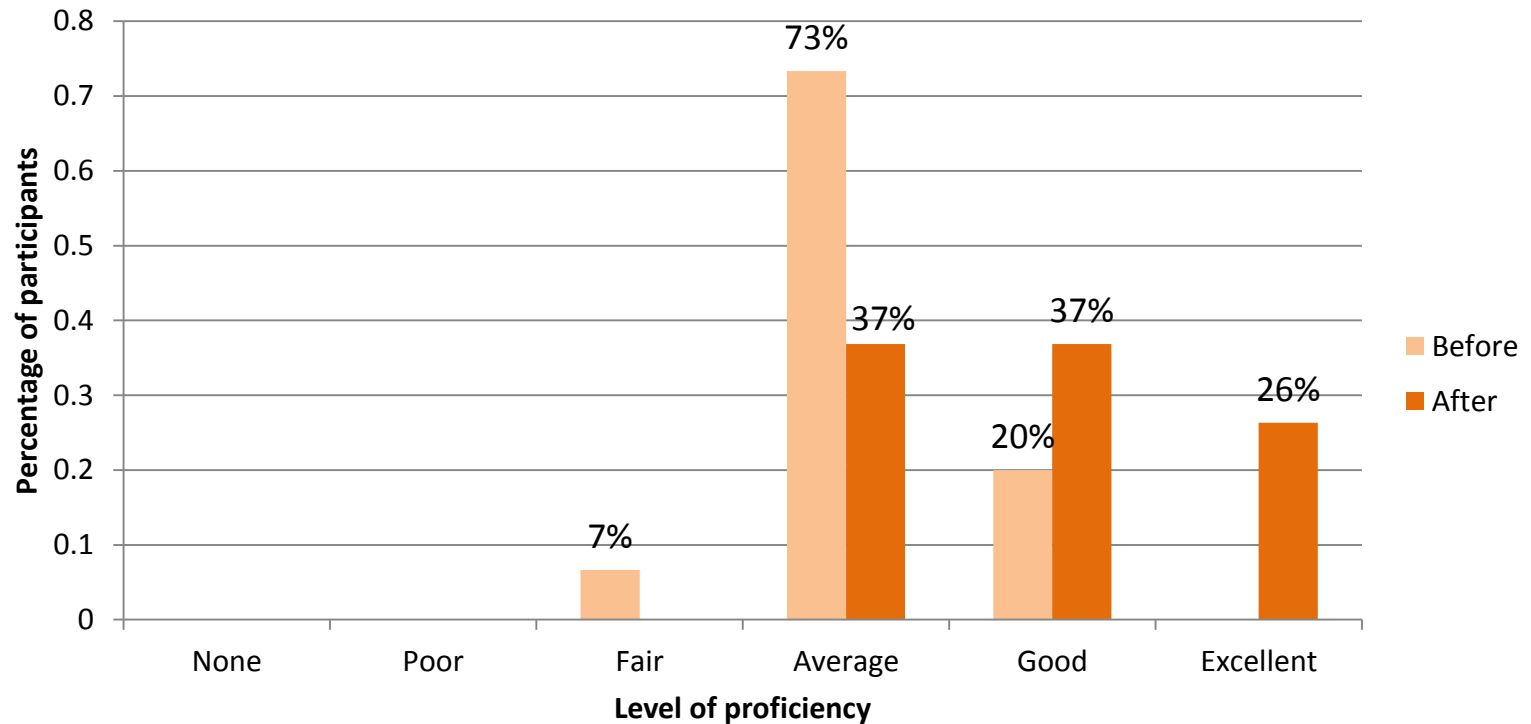

Exit survey respondents = 19

Aspect 1: Explain and describe the understanding of sustainability and its relevance to the participant

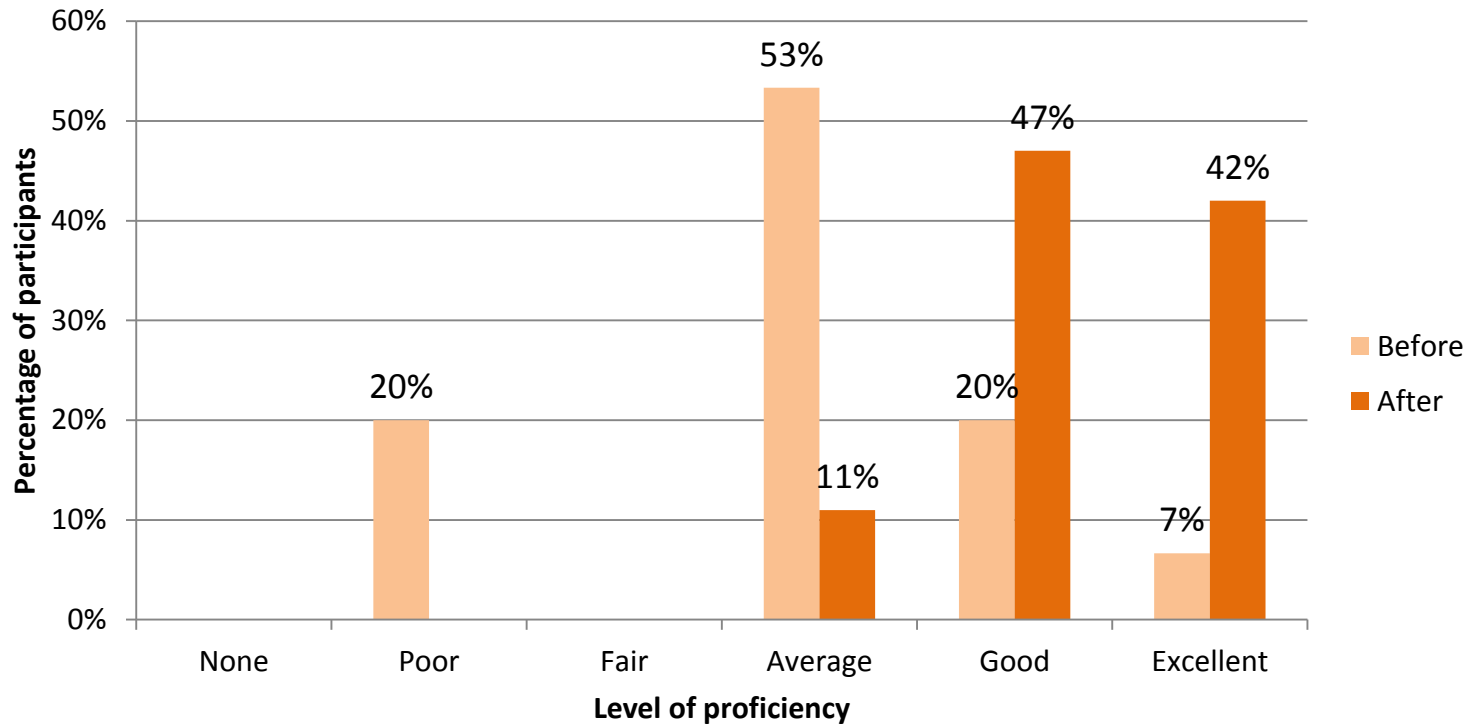

1a.) I can describe the definition of “Sustainability”

1b.) I can explain the development of significant local and global environmental events and issues 1c.) I can provide good examples of importance of sustainability in my daily life

Aspect 2: Participate and present a group presentation highlighting understanding on sustainability

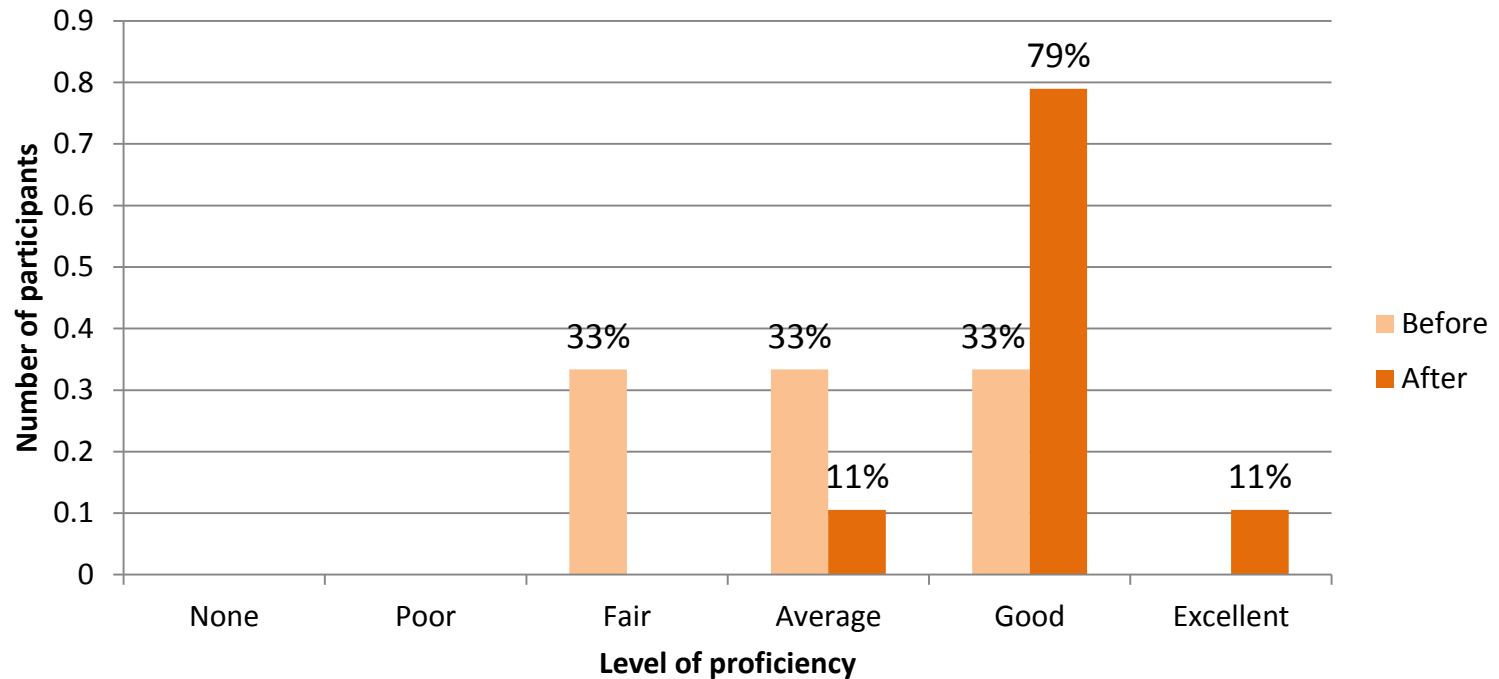

2a.) I can explain how to start learning about sustainability 2b.) I am able to provide good examples of some positive ideas about sustainability that I can use in school or at home

2c.) I am able to confidently understand, critique and analyze the topics on sustainability presented by the speakers

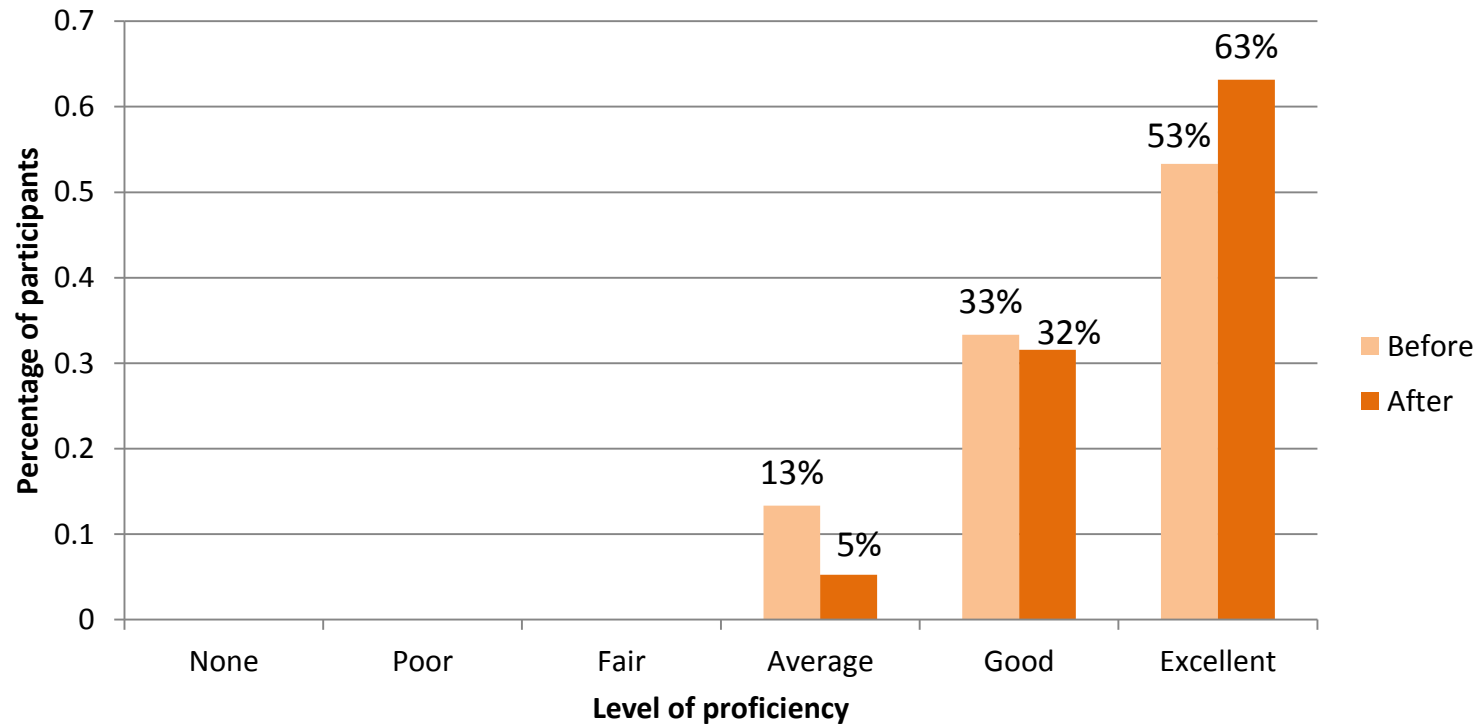

Aspect 3: Produce analytical thoughts and ideas on sustainability with confidence

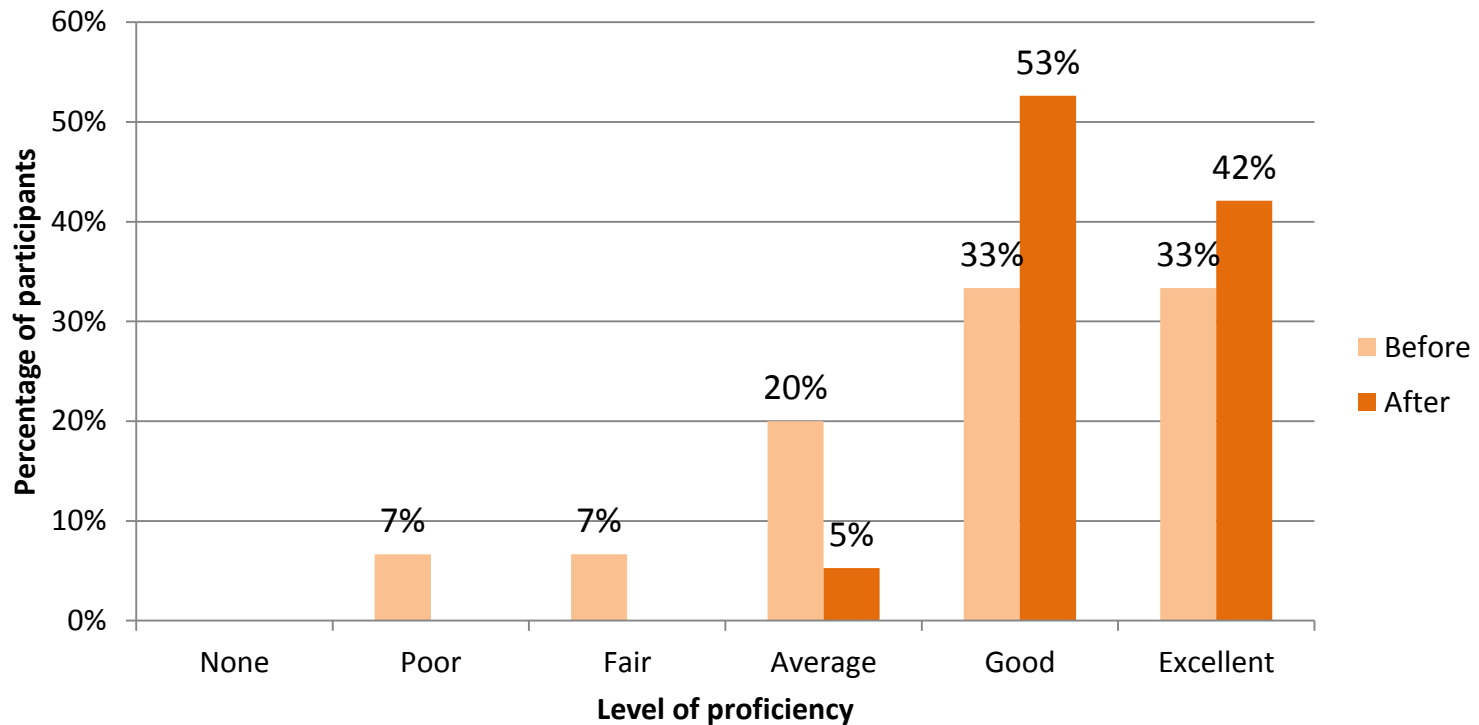

3a.) I can produce a good piece of assignment/ report for the camp

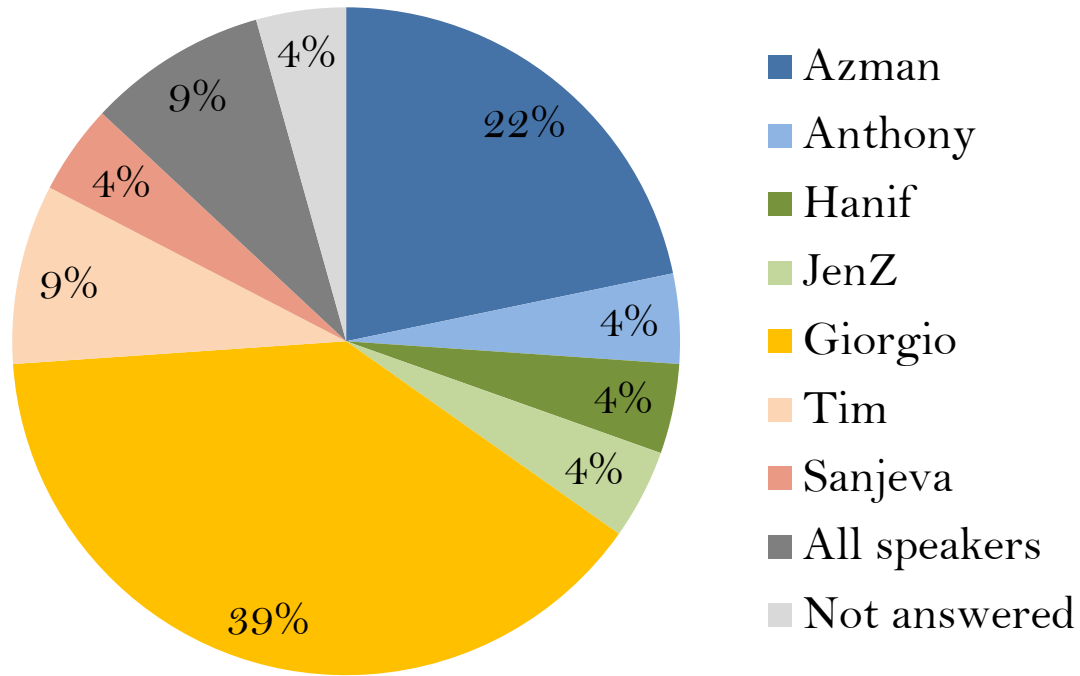

3b.) I am able to work effectively in a team

3c.) I am confident enough to present and represent my team in the camp during the presentation

Participant's Favourite Speaker

Total respondents: 18

Hanif

- He is great!

Tim

- He is very kind to teach
- He never says NO to our ideas
- He is creative

JenZ

- He is so kind, I love him

Sanjeva

- He never complains while babysitting us

Some quotes from participants

Azman

- He is patient and teaches us a lot
- He always takes care of me
- He is awesome

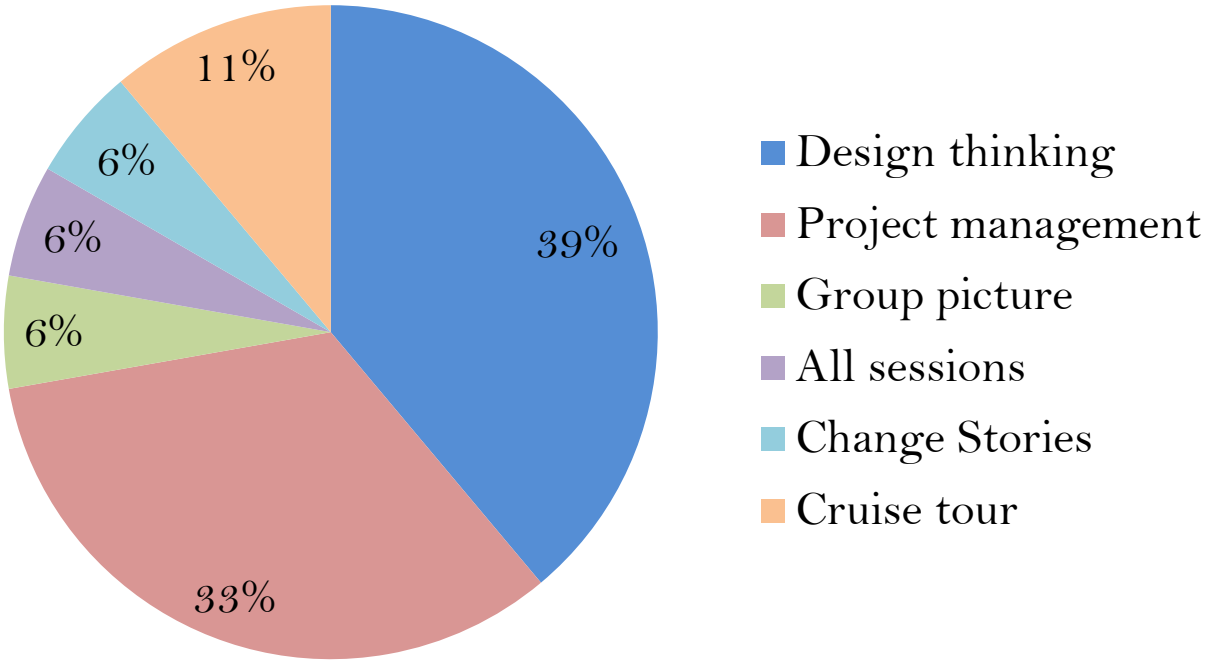

Anthony

- He is very insightful

Gio

- He is gorgeous, humorous and energetic
- He is really funny
- He gives good explanation
- He is brilliant and talented
- He really knows well about the industry and is generous to give opinions
- He is friendly and serious when necessary

Participant's favourite session

Total respondents: 18

Cruise Tour

- A new experience to me
- It is very interesting

Design Thinking Session

- Learn to think creatively and innovatively
- It sharpen my thinking skill
- It encourages social engagement and two ways communication
- I learn how to make things and demo it to local people and tourists
- I gain new experience from ideate session
- It is mind blowing to get everyone actively generate ideas and pick the best

Some quotes from participants

Project Management Session

- It teaches me about how it looks like to deal with people of different attitudes. It opens my mind to be realistic and responsible to anything we did.
- It resembles real life situation and helps to engage whole team for one mission
- This is really hands on to learn things

The End